The Constitution and Rules of the NZMHA lay down the basic criteria for an Affiliated Club or Society under:

MEMBERSHIP OF THE SOCIETY – Article 4

d. Affiliated Clubs/Societies Inc. A miniature horse club or society may apply in writing on the prescribed form for affiliation to the New Zealand Miniature Horse Association Inc under the following criteria:

- (i) The rules and show rules of the applicant club or society shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution, General Rules and Show Rules of the New Zealand Miniature Horse Association Inc.
- (ii) The applicant club or society shall have a minimum of 10(ten) NZMHA full members (including life members). The application for affiliation shall be accompanied by a list of all officers of the club and its members.
- (iii) No club or society may seek or hold affiliation to the New Zealand Miniature Horse Association Inc. When already affiliated to any other New Zealand Miniature Horse body.
- (iv) An affiliation fee is payable upon application for affiliation. An annual levy per member of the applicant club or society (as at 31st January of each year) shall be payable to the New Zealand Miniature Horse Association Inc by 28th February of each year. This fee shall be placed in a fund for the advertising and promotion generally of the Miniature horse.

(v) In considering an application for affiliation the Council shall consider any other matters which may be relevant to the application including the following:

- A. The name of the applicant club or society.
- B. Other affiliated clubs or societies within the same region
- C. Any evidence or representations in support or opposition to the application which the Council may hear in its absolute discretion.

The Council may approve or decline the application without reason or may defer the application and request the applicant club or society to amend its rules in such a manner as the Council may direct for the application to proceed.

(vi) Termination of affiliation – breach of any of the above conditions at any time may result in withdrawal of affiliation.
